2. The Final Judgment and Permanent Injunction ("Judgment"), a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1, may be entered by any judge of the Alameda County Superior Court. Counsel for Plaintiff may submit the Judgment to any judge of the superior court for approval and signature, during the court's ex parte calendar or on any other ex parte basis.

3. Plaintiff and Kaiser (collectively, "the Parties") hereby waive their right to move for a new trial or otherwise seek to set aside the Judgment through any collateral attack, and further waive their right to appeal from the Judgment, except that Plaintiff and Kaiser each agree that this Court shall retain jurisdiction for the purposes specified in paragraph F of the Judgment, as well as for the enforcement of compliance with or punishment of violations of the Judgment.

4. The Parties have stipulated and consented to the entry of the Judgment without the taking of proof and without trial or adjudication of any fact or law herein, without the Judgment constituting evidence of or an admission by Kaiser regarding any issue of law or fact alleged in the Complaint on file herein, and without Kaiser admitted any liability regarding allegations of violations that occurred prior to the entry of the Judgment.

- 5. The Parties acknowledge the Attorney General's right to investigate and enforce the injunctive provisions of this Judgment, and agree to meet and confer in an attempt to informally resolve any issues regarding enforcement of the injunctive provisions of this Judgment. Such meet and confer may be in person, by telephone, by videoconference, or any equivalent technology, and shall take place not less than thirty (30) days before Plaintiff takes action to enforce the injunctive provisions of this Judgment, unless the Attorney General in her discretion alone determines that delay would cause harm to the People of the State of California.
 - 6. Kaiser will accept service of any Notice of Entry of Judgment entered in this action by delivery of such notice to its counsel of record, and agrees that service of the Notice of Entry of Judgment will be deemed personal service upon it for all purposes.
 - 7. The individuals signing below represent that they have been authorized by the parties they represent to sign this Stipulation.

A. This Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter hereof and the parties hereto.

B. Venue is proper in this Court.

C. The injunctive provisions of this Judgment shall apply to defendant Kaiser, as well as its subsidiaries; its successors and the assigns of all or substantially all of the assets of its businesses; and its directors, officers, employees, agents, independent contractors, partners, associates and representatives of each of them.

D. Under California Business and Professions Code section 17203, Kaiser shall be and hereby is permanently enjoined and restrained from directly or indirectly doing any of the following acts or practices:

(1) Failing to comply with California Civil Code section 1798.82, subdivision (a) by failing to make a timely notification to any current or former Kaiser employee who is a resident in California and whose unencrypted "personal information," as that term is defined in California Civil Code section 1798.82, subdivision (h), was, or is reasonably believed to have been, acquired by an unauthorized person in a "breach of the security of the system," as that term is defined in California Civil Code section 1798.82, subdivision (g).

17 (2)Failing to provide notification on a rolling basis to any current or former Kaiser employee who is a resident in California and whose unencrypted "personal information," as that 18 19 term is defined in California Civil Code section 1798.82, subdivision (h), was, or is reasonably believed to have been, acquired by an unauthorized person in a "breach of the security of the 20 system," as that term is defined in California Civil Code section 1798.82, subdivision (g), 21 following discovery of or notification to Kaiser of the breach, where providing notification on a 22 rolling basis is feasible and appropriate. For purposes of this judgment, a "rolling basis" means 23 that Kaiser shall: (i) begin providing notice under California Civil Code section 1798.82, 24 subdivision (i), as soon as reasonably possible after identifying a portion of the total individuals 25 affected by a breach, even if Kaiser's investigation of the breach is ongoing; and (ii) continue to 26 notify individuals as soon as they are identified, throughout and until completion of Kaiser's investigation of the breach.

3 (3) Failing to implement, no later than one hundred twenty (120) days from entry of 4 this Judgment:

5 (a) The development of an additional training program for Kaiser employees
6 regarding the sensitive nature of employment-related personal information.

7 (b) A review of Kaiser policies regarding the encryption of emails that contain 8 sensitive employment-related personal information and a plan to improve those policies where 9 necessary and feasible.

(c) An internal audit regarding the extent of employee access to sensitive employment-related personal information.

(d) A report, to be provided to Plaintiff's representative Deputy Attorney General Stacey D. Schesser, concerning the result of Kaiser's audit regarding the extent of employee access to sensitive employment-related personal information.

E. Under Business and Professions Code section 17206, Kaiser shall pay to the Plaintiff the sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000.00). Kaiser shall also pay one hundred and twenty thousand dollars ($120,000.00) as attorney's fees and costs for the investigation and prosecution of this matter. Payment shall be made by check payable to the "California Attorney General's Office" and shall be delivered to the California Attorney General's Office, 455 Golden Gate Avenue, Suite 11000, San Francisco, California 94102, attention Deputy Attorney General Stacey D. Schesser no later than thirty (30) days after the date this Judgment is entered.
