Partnering with the World's Most Innovative Companies for 50 Years

Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati is the premier provider of legal services to technology, life sciences, and growth enterprises worldwide, as well as the public and private capital markets that finance them. The firm's broad array of services and practice areas is focused on addressing the principal challenges faced by the management, boards of directors, shareholders, and in-house counsel of our clients. We represent companies at every stage of development, from entrepreneurial start-ups to multibillion-dollar global corporations. Our distinguished international roster of clients are leaders in a wide variety of industries, including information technology, life sciences, energy and clean technology, communications, media and entertainment, retail, and financial services.

The Business of Law

Client service is the cornerstone of our practice, and we leverage our expertise to provide innovative, responsive, and cost-effective legal services as a strategic partner to our clients. We understand that the law is often a means to accomplish our clients' business objectives, and we pride ourselves on our intimate understanding of their industries and marketplaces. We also know that today's enterprises are facing unprecedented changes in the business, regulatory, and global landscapes, and we have the knowledge and experience to help our clients confidently adapt to such changes with state-of-the-art solutions.

Since our inception in the early days of Silicon Valley, we have grown alongside our entrepreneurial clients, expanding our legal services and business acumen to serve their evolving needs. We also have held steadfast to the core values that add strength and perspective to our practice, including a commitment to diversity, the establishment of a women's initiative, and a desire to give back to the community through a robust pro bono practice, a charitable foundation, and a firmwide volunteer network.
