HIGHLIGHTS

- A Trusted Advisor
Julia counseled public company clients and acted as general outside counsel for private companies, serving as a day-to-day primary support contact for most of her clients.
- Corporate Counseling and Transactional Experience
Her corporate counseling activities included advising boards and issuers on fiduciary matters, disclosure questions, and compliance issues, as well as counseling directors and issuers on corporate governance matters. She also assisted clients with venture financings, M&A transactions, public offerings, and private placements of public equity or convertible debt.

EXPERIENCE

Julia Reigel retired as a partner from Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati in 2024.

During her time at the firm, she counseled public company clients and acted as general outside counsel for private companies. She also served as a day-to-day primary support and client contact for most of her clients. Julia represented issuers, strategic investors, and venture capital funds in venture financings. Her corporate counseling activities included advising boards of directors and issuers on fiduciary matters, disclosure questions, and compliance issues, as well as counseling directors and issuers on corporate governance matters. Julia assisted clients in mergers, acquisitions, and spin-off transactions on both the buy and sell side. She also represented issuers in public offerings and private placements of public equity or convertible debt.

Prior to attending law school, Julia served in several different economic research and bank holding company regulatory capacities at the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston and the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City.
