

John Mao

PARTNER

Corporate
San Francisco

jmao@wsgr.com
650-565-3913

FOCUS AREAS

Corporate
Corporate Governance
Finance and Structured Finance

HIGHLIGHTS

- Broad Corporate Practice
John's practice covers a broad range of general corporate and transactional matters, including the general corporate representation of venture-backed corporations, public corporations, venture capital funds, and venture lending funds.
- Other Complex Finance and Transactions Experience
John has a particular expertise in debt finance that includes representation of both debtors and creditors in secured loan financings, secured acquisition financings, equipment lease financings, receivables and factoring financings, senior and subordinated debt financings, 144A convertible bond financings, and PIPE financings.

EXPERIENCE

John Mao is a partner in Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati's San Francisco office and co-leads the firm's corporate finance practice. John's practice covers a broad range of general corporate and transactional matters, including the general corporate representation of venture backed corporations, public corporations, venture capital funds, and venture lending funds. John has particular expertise in debt finance that includes representation of both debtors and creditors in secured loan financings, secured acquisition financings, equipment lease financings, receivables and factoring financings, senior and subordinated debt financings, 144A convertible bond financings, and PIPE financings.

CREDENTIALS

Education

- J.D., Fordham University School of Law, 1996
- A.B., Cornell University, 1991

Admissions

- State Bar of California
- State Bar of New York