EXPERIENCE

Miranda Biven is a partner in the technology transactions practice and a member of the board of directors at Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati. Her practice focuses on the life sciences industry, representing public and private companies based in the United States and abroad in complex partnering and licensing arrangements, mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, spin-outs, and other business arrangements. Miranda counsels clients on the legal and business issues associated with such transactions, as well as the full spectrum of technology and intellectual property-based agreements, including research and development agreements; manufacturing, supply, and distribution agreements; clinical trials arrangements; materials transfer agreements; and commercialization and co-commercialization agreements. She also regularly represents clients in their dealings with academic institutions and other not-for-profit organizations.

Prior to joining Wilson Sonsini in 2005, Miranda practiced in New York and Sydney, Australia.
