EXPERIENCE

Adrian Broderick is a partner in the Delaware office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati. Her practice focuses on providing advice on all aspects of Delaware corporate and alternative entity law and related governance matters, with a particular focus on entities formed as Delaware limited liability companies and Delaware limited partnerships. Adrian advises clients with regard to fiduciary duties, corporate restructurings, mergers and acquisitions, equity issuances and financings, formation, dissolution and liquidation, and various statutory matters. Adrian provides advice to a wide array of clients—including investors and private and public companies—and she provides corporate and alternative entity advice in the context of governance litigation.
