EXPERIENCE

Bob Hemm is senior counsel in the New York office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where he is a member of the firm's energy and climate solutions practice.

Bob has more than 10 years of experience handling a wide range of complex commercial lending and structured finance transactions, including tax equity investments, trade finance, derivatives, royalty monetizations, and asset-based securitization and repo transactions. He partners with clients ranging from large corporations and financial institutions to start-up companies, working with them to develop tailored financial structures and solutions to meet their specific goals and to address the corresponding array of legal and technical challenges that may arise.

In addition, Bob has extensive experience representing debtors, creditors, and other interested parties in a variety of bankruptcy and restructuring matters. He is also dedicated to pro bono service, and has devoted significant time to appellate litigation in asylum matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Bob was an associate at Covington & Burling LLP.
