EXPERIENCE

Brian Currie is Of Counsel at Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where he advises clients on a broad range of state corporate law matters. Brian's practice centers on providing advice with respect to fiduciary duties and statutory requirements through the various steps in a company's life cycle, including corporate formation, preferred stockholder investments, purchases and sales of assets, dividends and stock repurchases, tender offers and mergers and acquisitions, and liquidations and dissolutions. Admitted to practice in both Delaware and Nevada, Brian is well-positioned to help clients navigate complex governance issues across both jurisdictions in a rapidly evolving corporate governance landscape.
