EXPERIENCE

Edward V. Kayukov is Senior Of Counsel in the Century City office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati and a member of the firm's energy and climate solutions practice. He focuses on representing both leading developers of renewable energy projects and the companies spearheading energy transition, such as Goldman Sachs Renewable Power, Sunrun, Cypress Creek Renewables, Guzman Energy Group, Nautilus Solar, and Swell Energy, in a broad array of project finance transactions, including debt and tax equity financings. Edward also represents financial institutions providing financing to renewable energy projects, including Siemens Financial Services and Société Générale.

Edward's practice involves the representation of sponsors, borrowers, lenders, arrangers, and equity investors in the energy and infrastructure field, with a particular emphasis on renewable energy sectors (such as solar, wind, geothermal, and biomass), community solar, energy storage and distributed energy resources. He also has considerable experience with conventional power and infrastructure projects, as well as with acquisitions and dispositions of power and infrastructure projects. Edward has supported financing of international energy and infrastructure projects, including in Brazil, Canada, and Mexico.

Prior to joining the firm, Edward was a partner in Milbank Tweed's Los Angeles office.
