EXPERIENCE

Melanie Froh Carver is an associate in the Austin office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she represents companies at all stages, from formation through exit. She advises venture-backed companies in a number of areas including venture financings and other capital raises, corporate governance, and strategic partnerships. Melanie also represents companies of all sizes in buy- and sell-side mergers and acquisitions.

Before attending law school, Melanie held paralegal, compliance, and legal operations roles at WP Engine, Spredfast (now Khoros), RetailMeNot, Whole Foods, and DLA Piper. Her work included general corporate matters, financings, mergers and acquisitions, compliance, data privacy, and technology transactions. During law school, Melanie worked for WP Engine in matters related to their majority investment by Silver Lake Partners and as a core deal team member in their acquisition of StudioPress. Melanie also worked as a summer associate and law clerk for Wilson Sonsini.
