EXPERIENCE

Stephanie C. Cheng is an associate at Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she specializes in trade secret and IP litigation.

Stephanie represents companies ranging from start-ups to industry leaders, as well as nonprofit institutions, in complex litigation related to patent, trade secret, copyright, unfair competition, contract, securities fraud, privacy, and other IP and commercial litigation matters. Stephanie has significant experience in all aspects of litigation, ranging from pre-litigation counseling through trial.

Stephanie is actively involved in pro bono work and is on the firm's pro bono committee. In her pro bono practice, Stephanie has worked on impact litigation with the ACLU of Louisiana and the ACLU of Washington, represented clients in probate guardianship and immigration proceedings, and worked with non-profits to protect the right to vote.
