EXPERIENCE

Remi Korenblit is a partner at Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where his practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, financing transactions, and other corporate and securities law matters. His transaction experience includes mergers, business combinations, asset and stock purchases, divestitures, carve-outs and spin-off transactions, private equity and venture financing transactions, joint ventures, and other strategic transactions for both public and private companies. He also advises clients on corporate governance matters, shareholder activism, takeover defense, recapitalizations and restructurings, and other special situations. Remi has represented U.S. and international clients in a variety of sectors, including software and technology, telecommunication, media, banking and finance, industrial, manufacturing, pharmaceutical, energy, and retail industries.

Prior to joining Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, Remi practiced corporate law at Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz in New York and Darrois Villey Maillot Brochier in Paris. Prior to practicing law, Remi was an investment banking associate at Sandler O'Neill in Chicago.

In addition to English, Remi is fluent in French.
