EXPERIENCE

Sabin Chung is an associate in the antitrust practice of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati in the Washington, D.C. office. Her practice focuses on antitrust, competition law, and investigations. Sabin represents clients in antitrust and competition-related matters, including merger and acquisition approval under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, as well as state and federal antitrust litigation matters. She also has experience with white collar criminal defense and enforcement matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Sabin worked at a global international law firm. Her previous experience includes working as a member in the legal affairs department at a global airline, and serving as a judicial intern for the Honorable Ketanji Brown Jackson of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia and for the Office of International Affairs in the Federal Trade Commission.

In addition to English, Sabin is fluent in Korean.
