EXPERIENCE

Ryan Hart is an associate in the Wilmington, Delaware office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati. He provides advice on transactional matters involving Delaware corporate law, such as incorporations, stock issuances, financings, mergers and acquisitions, liquidations, dissolutions, and other general corporate matters. He also advises boards of directors and committees on fiduciary duty and governance matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Ryan practiced for several years in the transactional group at Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor, LLP in Wilmington, where he often provided advice to companies and their boards in restructurings, bankruptcies, and other distressed situations. He also assisted companies in debt financings, liquidations, Article 9 foreclosures, and sales under Section 363 of the United States Bankruptcy Code.

Ryan has also assisted pro bono clients on transactional matters such as entity formations and applications for tax exemption under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. He also serves as a guardian ad litem for the Delaware Office of the Child Advocate.
