EXPERIENCE

Laurine Daïnesi Signoret is an associate in the Brussels office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati. Her practice focuses on all aspects of European competition law, including cartels, mergers, counseling, and litigation. She has experience across a wide range of sectors, including information technology, digital services, and sustainability collaborations.

Laurine works regularly with Wilson Sonsini's data protection and privacy team to advise clients on digital platform regulation and data-related antitrust counseling.

Laurine maintains an active pro bono practice. She is a recipient of the firm's John Wilson Award, which is presented annually to attorneys who have demonstrated a significant commitment to the firm's pro bono clients.

Prior to joining the firm in 2020, Laurine was an intern at the European Commission's DG Competition in the mergers case support and policy unit.

She is a native French speaker, and is fluent in English and Italian.
