EXPERIENCE

Noora Bayrami is an associate in the New York office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she works on a variety of civil and criminal antitrust matters including litigation, criminal investigations, and mergers.

While attending law school, Noora clerked with the Department of Justice in the Office of Vaccine Litigation, where she defended against complaints brought under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act, and the Antitrust Division, where she worked on civil matters in the healthcare and consumer products section, assisting with investigations and second requests. Noora also worked as a research assistant with the Social Enterprise & Nonprofit Clinic, which assists small businesses in the D.C. area.

Noora speaks Persian.

Noora is admitted in the District of Columbia. She is not yet admitted in New York and therefore not authorized to practice law in New York.
