

Wilson Sonsini Advises Brex on $300 Million Series D-2 Financing

CLIENT HIGHLIGHTS

January 12, 2022

On January 11, 2022, Brex, the U.S. fintech company reimagining finance for growing businesses, announced it has raised an additional $300 million in a Series D-2 round led by Greenoaks Capital and Technology Crossover Ventures (TCV). The latest funding round will enable Brex to deepen its investment in expanding the company's product portfolio, serving a wider range of finance needs for fast-growing companies. Since the company's founding in 2017, Brex has raised a total of $1.2 billion from investors and is currently valued at $12.3 billion.

Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati represented Brex in the transaction. The team includes Damien Weiss, Megan Baier, Melissa Rick, Abi Riddle, Gordon Grafft, and Amy Lucas.

For more information, please see Brex's press release.