EXPERIENCE

Callie Davidson is an associate in the Los Angeles office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati and has cultivated diverse litigation-focused experience within the firm's complex litigation, internet strategy, and intellectual property practice groups. Her practice has covered complex, high-stakes commercial disputes in the technology, energy, and real estate sectors, including cases involving products liability, breach of contract, patent, trade dress, and multi-district litigation. Callie has assisted with dispositive motion drafting, managed discovery, and has supported two trial teams, including by arguing a motion in limine in U.S. District Court for the Central District of California.

Callie maintains an active pro bono practice which has included immigration, transgender rights, appellate, and criminal vacatur matters. Working alongside Of Counsel Ariel Anaba, she helped secure deferral for a bisexual client facing removal to Nigeria, including by conducting the client's direct examination during immigration proceedings.
