EXPERIENCE

Michael Brito-Stamm is an associate in the Century City office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where he focuses his capital markets practice on debt and equity securities offerings, including IPOs and follow-on offerings, and public and private mergers and acquisitions. He regularly advises his clients on capital structuring and raising, corporate governance, securities regulation, and compliance issues.

Michael's practice also includes counseling companies, from start-ups to well-seasoned issuers, on corporate governance, ongoing SEC compliance, and other general corporate matters. He advises clients on compliance with the Securities Act of 1933, Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. He works closely with directors and senior management on a broad range of other legal matters, including fiduciary duties, compliance issues, and organizational matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Michael was an associate at Troutman Pepper Hamilton Sanders in New York.
