

Khalil Nobles

ASSOCIATE

Technology
Transactions
New York

knobles@wsgr.com
212-453-2876

FOCUS AREAS

Artificial Intelligence and
Machine Learning

Emerging Companies and Venture Capital

Internet

Technology Transactions

EXPERIENCE

Khalil Nobles is a senior associate in the New York office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where he is part of the firm's technology transactions practice. His practice covers a wide range of activities related to the commercialization of technology and acquisition of intellectual property rights, including negotiating and drafting strategic commercial agreements, matters relating to mergers and acquisitions, financing transactions, and intellectual property and technology transfers. The International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP) has designated Khalil as a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US).

Prior to joining the firm, Khalil worked as in-house counsel at an enterprise technology company. Prior to attending law school, Khalil was an IT consultant and engineer.

CREDENTIALS

Education

- J.D., Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, 2015
Moot Court Honor Society, Intellectual Property and Information Law, Colloquium Fellow
- M.S., Information Science and Technology, State University of New York at Albany, 2008
- B.A., Information Science, State University of New York at Albany, 2007
Minor in Computer Science, Cum Laude

Associations and Memberships

- Member, International Association of Privacy Professionals
- Board member, Pipeline to Practice Foundation

Honors

- Honored Among the 2025 Cornerstone Awardees by Lawyers Alliance for New York
- Listed as a top attorney for intellectual property law in Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch, 2021-2024

Admissions

- State Bar of New York