EXPERIENCE

Erica Wolfe Heinz is an associate in the Boston office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she represents life sciences and technology companies throughout their business life cycle. She focuses her practice on corporate and securities laws, advising clients on matters such as formation, venture capital financing, and corporate governance.

Erica was a summer associate and law clerk in Wilson Sonsini's Boston office, where she assisted with the representation of early-stage life sciences companies. During law school, she advocated for the rights of disadvantaged groups in the Americas through her school's International Human Rights Practicum. She has also previously served as a volunteer EMT.
