

Allurie Kephart

PARTNER

Corporate
Wilmington, DE

akephart@wsgr.com
302-502-8407

FOCUS AREAS

Corporate
Corporate Governance
Mergers & Acquisitions
Restructuring

HIGHLIGHTS

- Comprehensive Experience in Delaware Law and Entities
Allurie specializes in matters and businesses governed by Delaware law and counsels clients on a wide range of corporate matters.
- Unique Representations
Allurie has advised a variety of businesses, including corporations, limited liability companies, limited partnerships, and non-incorporated entities. She has also represented numerous special conflicts committees on asset drop-downs, restructurings, and other transactions.

EXPERIENCE

Allurie Kephart is a corporate partner in the Delaware office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she specializes in business deals and transactions governed by Delaware law. She counsels clients on various aspects of Delaware corporate and alternative entity law and provides advice in connection with joint ventures, financings, mergers and acquisitions, formation, dissolution, and liquidation. Allurie has unique experience counseling distressed companies on corporate and alternative entity matters, including bankruptcy, and has frequently advised special conflicts committees on asset drop-downs and restructurings.

Prior to joining the firm, Allurie practiced corporate law at Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor, LLP. During law school, Allurie was a judicial intern for the Honorable D. Brooks Smith of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. Following graduation, Allurie practiced at Richards, Layton & Finger in Wilmington, Delaware.

CREDENTIALS

Education

- J.D., Pennsylvania State University Dickinson School of Law, 2011
Magna Cum Laude; Dean's Scholarship; Editor-in-Chief, Penn State Environmental Law Review; Woolsack Honor Society
- B.A., Pennsylvania State University, 2008
Dean's List, Minors in French and Francophone Studies

Admissions

- State Bar of Delaware