EXPERIENCE

Laura Odujinrin is an associate in the San Francisco office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she is a member of the firm's corporate practice.

During law school, Laura worked as a legal extern in the chambers of the Honorable Chief Justice Tani G. Cantil-Sakauye of the California Supreme Court. Laura also worked with the University of San Francisco's Racial Justice Clinic, where she assisted with overturning the wrongful conviction of Mr. Yutico Briley and helped secure his exoneration and release in 2021.

Prior to law school, Laura worked at Sapphire Ventures as the director of marketing and at several Bay Area start-up technology companies.
