EXPERIENCE

Ashmi Bhagani is a partner in the London office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she has a diverse transatlantic corporate and securities practice focused on the technology and life sciences sectors.

Ashmi advises emerging companies through all stages of their life cycle, with a particular focus on transformative events, including venture capital and growth financings, acquisitions, IPOs, and other strategic transactions. She also frequently counsels venture capital and other private equity funds on structuring and executing transatlantic investment transactions.

Ashmi has deep experience counseling on cross-border M&A and international equity capital markets transactions and routinely advises on UK/European corporate governance, listing, and securities laws matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Ashmi practised at Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP and Sullivan & Cromwell LLP in London.
