

Wilson Sonsini Advises Strattam on Partnership with Daxtra

CLIENT HIGHLIGHTS

July 27, 2023

On June 29, 2023, Daxtra, a leading provider of AI-enriched software for the talent acquisition ecosystem, announced a majority growth investment from Strattam Capital alongside founders and co-owners Andrei Mikheev and Steven Finch. Daxtra will use this growth capital to meet customer demand in North America while continuing to offer high-quality solutions and support to its global customer base.

“Our AI-based solutions have revolutionized the recruitment industry, empowering recruiters to work more efficiently, saving valuable time and resources,” said Andrei Mikheev, CEO of Daxtra. “The investment by Strattam will allow us to accelerate growth in North America, while continuing to provide the superior customer service and great products that our customers expect.”
