EXPERIENCE

Omar Jooma is an associate in the New York office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where he is a member of the firm's energy and climate solutions practice. His practice focuses on representing sponsors, developers, and borrowers in project and structured finance, acquisitions, and project development transactions. He also advises lenders, tax equity investors, private equity funds, and other investors in the renewable energy and clean technology sectors.

Prior to joining the firm, Omar was an associate in the Environmental, Social & Governance (ESG) and Impact group at Kirkland & Ellis LLP, where he advised private equity firms and public and private companies on a wide range of ESG and sustainability-related matters, with a particular focus on sustainable finance. Prior to that, he was an associate in the bank finance group at an international law firm.
