EXPERIENCE

Sachli Nayeri is a litigation associate in the Century City office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she is a member of the Internet Strategy and IP Litigation group.

Sachli focuses her practice on complex intellectual property and commercial litigation, representing a broad range of clients in the technology sector, from start-ups to Fortune 500 companies and leaders in the industry. She has experience advising technology companies through all stages of litigation in both federal and state courts nationwide. She has particular experience in cases involving trade secret misappropriation, patent infringement, and breach of contract claims.

During law school, Sachli participated in the UCI Intellectual Property, Arts, and Technology Clinic, helping media organizations and journalists as clients.
