EXPERIENCE

Savannah Grant is an associate in the San Francisco office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she focuses on complex litigation.

During law school, Savannah interned for the Honorable Walter W. Davis and the Honorable William “Bill” Grady Hamrick, III in the Georgia State-Wide Business Court. She also interned for the Georgia Resource Center, where she assisted with habeas corpus petitions. She also was a clinical student in the Community HeLP clinic, where she represented U-Visa and asylum applicants.

Prior to law school, Savannah interned for the Tallahassee Veterans Legal Collaborative, where she assisted veterans in need with various legal questions and concerns. She also worked with the law firm of Marie A. Mattox drafting complaints for claims related to employment discrimination.
