EXPERIENCE

Adrian Lee is an associate in the Washington, D.C., office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where he is a member of the firm's antitrust and competition practice. His work encompasses a variety of civil and criminal antitrust matters, including litigation, government investigations, and mergers and acquisitions.

Prior to joining the firm, Adrian worked as a corporate paralegal at an international law firm and a managing paralegal at Credit Karma, where he worked on mergers and acquisitions, regulatory compliance, and corporate governance matters, including the company's acquisition and antitrust clearance.

During law school, Adrian interned in the Mergers IV division of the Bureau of Competition at the Federal Trade Commission, where he gained experience with government investigations into mergers and acquisitions. He also interned for a cloud communication technology company and the NAPABA Law Foundation.
