EXPERIENCE

Isabella Ang is an associate in the Salt Lake City office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she is a member of the firm's litigation department. Her practice focuses on securities litigation and complex commercial litigation, including matters involving trade secret disputes, securities class actions, business torts, breach of contract disputes, and copyright litigation. In addition, Isabella maintains an active pro bono practice.

During law school, Isabella interned at the Prisoner Litigation Unit for the U.S. District Court for the District of Utah and was extensively involved in pro bono work supporting underserved communities through family advocacy, immigration matters, and work with justice-impacted individuals.
