HIGHLIGHTS

- Dynamic Trial Attorney
Bonnie has an exceptional track record of representing clients in high-stakes antitrust class action litigation, enforcement proceedings, and internal and government investigations across an array of industries, including technology, healthcare, manufacturing, media, telecommunications, and financial services.
- A Highly Recognized Practitioner
Bonnie has been repeatedly recognized as one of the “Top 100 Lawyers in California” and as a “Top Antitrust Lawyer” by the Daily Journal, and has been ranked as a leading antitrust practitioner by Chambers USA since 2022. She also received the 2021 “Antitrust/Competition Lawyer of the Year” award at Euromoney America’s Women in Business Law Awards.
- Focus on Community
Bonnie is dedicated to building an inclusive legal community and currently serves as co-chair of the Women’s Leadership Network for the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association and Vice Chair of the ABA Antitrust Section’s Women Connected. She is a former chair of the Leadership Council for Legal Diversity Alumni Executive Council.

EXPERIENCE

Bonnie Lau is a partner in the San Francisco office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati. She represents clients in antitrust and related complex litigation involving claims of price-fixing, wage-fixing, no-poach conduct, output suppression, monopolization, refusal to deal, predatory pricing, and group boycott, as well as antitrust counterclaims in IP and patent matters. Clients praise Bonnie as a “masterful strategist” who “deliver[s] pragmatic and business-focused advice,” and “a fantastic lawyer” who is “detail-oriented and able to manage complex matters with ease and good humor” (Chambers USA).

Bonnie has tried several bench and jury trials to verdict, including as lead trial counsel in an antitrust class action jury trial with over $1 billion of exposure. She has also represented clients in complex litigation involving unfair competition, RICO, TCPA, and intellectual property claims.

Bonnie has an active pro bono practice spanning constitutional law, immigration, and human rights litigation, and recently secured a $15.5 million jury verdict on behalf of Haitian victims of torture, mass arson, and extrajudicial killings.
