

Nick Sidney

OF COUNSEL

Litigation
Seattle

nsidney@wsgr.com
206-883-2547

FOCUS AREAS

Antitrust Litigation
Class Action Litigation
Commercial Litigation
Internet Strategy and Litigation
Litigation
Trial

EXPERIENCE

Nick Sidney is a trial attorney in the Seattle office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where he represents clients at all stages of high-stakes litigation in federal and state court. Nick has examined numerous trial witnesses, taken and defended fact and expert depositions, written and argued dispositive motions, and managed all aspects of fact and expert discovery.

Prior to joining the firm, Nick worked at the Los Angeles office of Munger, Tolles & Olson LLP and was previously in-house counsel for a large internet company, where he advised on fraud and abuse prevention.

CREDENTIALS

Education

- J.D., Stanford Law School, 2015
- B.A., International Relations, University of California, Davis, 2012
Summa Cum Laude

Admissions

- State Bar of California
- State Bar of Washington

MATTERS

Select Matters

- Represented Google at trial and in multi-district litigation encompassing private, class, and government enforcement actions alleging anticompetitive conduct in connection with the Google Play Store*
- Represented energy industry clients in a trial challenging state property tax assessments*
- Conducted internal investigations for a public entity healthcare organization relating to alleged sexual harassment by medical service providers*
- Represented a national law firm in a legal malpractice action relating to a patent trial*
- Represented a major financial institution in various matters relating to allegedly improper consumer banking sales practices, in litigation arising from the sale of mortgages*
- Represented students and families in a landmark pro bono trial that resulted in the court finding that the State of New Mexico had failed to provide adequate public education*

Denotes experience prior to joining Wilson Sonsini.*