

Wilson Sonsini Advises Replit on $250 Million Series C

MATTER LEADS

Yoichiro (Yokum) Taku

Lang Liu

Avi Emanuel

CLIENT HIGHLIGHTS

On September 10, 2025, Replit, an agentic AI software creation platform, announced a $250 million Series C funding round led by Prysm Capital with participation from Amex Ventures and Google's AI Futures Fund as strategic investors. Existing investors, YC, Craft, a16z, Coatue, Paul Graham, and others increased their investments. Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati advised Replit on the transaction.

In addition to the new investment, Replit announced that its products are now available to global customers through the Google Cloud Marketplace. Funds from the financing round will be used to scale operations, accelerate product development, and support global expansion.

The Wilson Sonsini team that advised Replit includes Yokum Taku, Lang Liu, Avi Emanuel, Oliver Zhou, Madisyn Klein, Erik Echeona, and Riven Bu.

For more information, please see Replit's news release. Additional coverage can be found on Reuters.