EXPERIENCE

Michelle Ullman is an associate in the San Francisco office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she focuses on privacy, data security, and regulatory compliance issues.

During law school, Michelle interned with the Consumer Protection Division of the Washington State Attorney General's Office, where she assisted with a multi-state investigation that focused on children's online safety. In addition, she studied current trends and issues in data privacy and artificial intelligence regulation through her involvement with her law school's Technology Law and Public Policy Clinic. She also taught legal research and writing skills to first-year law students as a Legal Writing Fellow.

Michelle is fluent in Russian.
