October 22, 2025

On October 22, 2025, Uniphore, the Business AI company, announced the close of its $260 million Series F round. NVIDIA, AMD, Snowflake, and Databricks invested in the round and were joined by financial and sovereign investors including NEA, March Capital, BNF Capital, National Grid Partners, and Prosperity7 Ventures. The new capital will accelerate innovation on its AI and data platform—Business AI Cloud—while deepening its ecosystem.

The Wilson Sonsini team that advised Uniphore on the transaction was led by Rezwan Pavri and Colin Conklin. The corporate team also included Richa Sharma, Jackie Jung, and CJ Collins.
