

Meher Kairon Prasad

ASSOCIATE

Corporate
London

mkprasad@wsgr.com
44-20-38367902

FOCUS AREAS

Artificial Intelligence and
Machine Learning

Corporate

Emerging Companies and Venture Capital

Fintech

Life Sciences

Mergers & Acquisitions

EXPERIENCE

Meher Kairon Prasad is an associate in the London office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she is a member of the firm's corporate practice.

Meher's practice focuses on venture capital, mergers and acquisitions, and corporate finance. She primarily advises companies, founders, and venture capital funds on complex domestic and cross-border transactions, with an emphasis on the technology, energytech, and financial services sectors. Her practice covers the entire life cycle of a company, from early-stage to exit. Meher also brings an entrepreneurial perspective to her practice as a former founder of a consumer company.

Prior to joining the firm, Meher was an associate in the corporate department at Baker Botts in London.

CREDENTIALS

Education

- Legal Practice Course (LPC), University of Law, 2017
- B.A., Law, Cambridge University, 2016
- B.A., Political Science, University of Chicago, 2013

Admissions

- Solicitor, England and Wales

MATTERS

Select Matters

- Advised an early-stage biotechnology company on a Series B equity financing
- Advised a UK-headquartered European leader in business messaging solutions on its €300 million sale to a London-based private equity firm*
- Represented a European market leader in mobile top-ups and prepaid money in its €300 million strategic sale to a global payments business *
- Advised a UK-based digital cross-border payments service on its $150 million buyout by an Israeli payments and payroll solutions provider*
- Represented the Growth and Technology fund of a global financial services group on its acquisition of a provider of wind turbine performance analytics*
- Advised a UK energytech business on multiple rounds of fundraising (Bridge, Series A, and Series B) and ongoing corporate governance matters*
- Advised a UK fintech start-up on various rounds of fundraising, including a Series B*
- Advised a Texas-based electrical equipment provider in its acquisition of a UK manufacturer specializing in security and emergency services technology*

- Advised a global lubricants business on high-value commercial agreements, including IP license agreements for brand sponsorship programs in the British GT Championship*

Denotes experience at another firm prior to joining Wilson Sonsini.*