EXPERIENCE

Alexander Wong is a regulatory and compliance associate in the Hong Kong office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where his practice focuses on antitrust and competition law and foreign investment controls. He regularly advises multinational corporations on all aspects of antitrust laws in Greater China and the Asia-Pacific, including merger control, regulatory compliance, and investigations, as well as the multijurisdictional foreign investment control aspects of cross-border transactions. Alex also has experience advising clients across a wide range of sectors, including aviation, advanced engineering and technology, defense, financial services, industrials, and telecommunications.

Prior to moving to Hong Kong, Alex practiced at a major Malaysian law firm, where he advised clients on antitrust-related matters in Southeast Asia. He also practiced at an international law firm in Hong Kong for four years before joining Wilson Sonsini.

Alex is fluent in English, Cantonese, and Mandarin, and conversational in Malay.
