EXPERIENCE

Grace Chow is a registered foreign lawyer (New York) in the Hong Kong office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where her practice focuses on advising clients on sanctions, national security, anti-corruption, and anti-money laundering issues. Grace provides strategic counsel to clients across a broad range of industrial sectors in Asia and the Middle East on internal investigations, government enforcement actions, and compliance reviews. She also assists clients with compliance-related due diligence on various cross-border transactions.

Prior to joining the firm, Grace served as in-house counsel for a few years, including at a global financial institution based in Hong Kong where she advised on financial crime matters. She started her career as an associate at the Singapore office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher where she was part of the White-Collar Investigations practice group.
