

Victor Nuñez

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

New York

vnunez@wsgr.com

212-497-7744

EXPERIENCE

Victor Nuñez is chief financial officer at Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati. He brings over two decades of financial and operational experience in the legal industry and oversees the firm's global finance function, including financial planning, accounting, treasury, and related operations.

Prior to joining Wilson Sonsini, Victor served as global chief operating officer at Cooley LLP, where he led global business operations and managed core firm functions. Previously, Victor was global chief operating officer at Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP and global chief financial officer at Norton Rose Fulbright.

Earlier in his legal industry career, Victor spent over 15 years at White & Case, holding a variety of finance and management roles before becoming chief operating officer for the Americas. He began his career in finance and strategy at American Express.

CREDENTIALS

Education

- S.B.S. Executive Program, Stanford University Graduate School of Business
- M.I.A., School of International and Public Affairs at Columbia University
Concentration in International Finance and Business
- B.A., Government and Economics, Wesleyan University