EXPERIENCE

Clare Platt is an associate at Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she focuses on employment litigation and counseling. Clare represents companies in a broad range of employment litigation matters, including wage and hour, worker misclassification, discrimination, harassment, retaliation, breach of contract, and trade secret misappropriation in federal and state court and in arbitration. Her experience includes class action wage and hour litigation, class settlement administration, and federal appeals. Clare represents clients ranging from venture-backed start-ups to global industry leaders across the technology, energy, insurance, and media and entertainment sectors. She also counsels employers on a range of employment matters, including workplace investigations.

Prior to joining the firm, Clare was an associate at Gibson Dunn & Crutcher in Los Angeles.

Clare is admitted in California. She is not yet admitted to practice in New York and therefore not authorized to practice law in New York.
