

Shanna A. Lehrman

ASSOCIATE

Litigation
Seattle

slehrman@wsgr.com
206-883-2583

FOCUS AREAS

Antitrust and Competition
Biotech
Board and Internal Investigations
Commercial Litigation
Consumer Products and Services
Government Investigations
Internet
Internet Strategy and Litigation
Life Sciences
Litigation
Trial
White Collar Crime

EXPERIENCE

Shanna Lehrman is a litigation associate in the Seattle office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where her diverse practice spans antitrust, commercial and securities litigation, internet strategy and litigation, government and internal investigations, and white collar crime.

Shanna has represented companies and individuals in connection with high-stakes, complex litigation and investigations, and has significant, wide-ranging experience spanning counseling, compliance, and pre-litigation resolutions to discovery, trials, and appeals. Shanna also maintains an active pro bono litigation practice and has been honored several times with the Firm's Pro Bono Service Award.

Prior to joining the Firm, Shanna was an associate at Winston & Strawn LLP in New York, where she devoted much of her litigation and counseling practice to the intersection between antitrust and intellectual property.

During law school, Shanna worked as a full-time law clerk at the U.S. Department of Justice Antitrust Division and in-house at Truist Bank (f/k/a BB&T). She also was a summer associate at White & Case LLP in Beijing.

CREDENTIALS

Education

- J.D., Duke University School of Law, 2015
Executive Editor, Duke Journal of Comparative and International Law
- B.A., Economics and English, University of California, Berkeley, 2012
With Distinction, With Honors in Economics, Minor in Public Policy

Associations and Memberships

- Member, American Bar Association

Admissions

- State Bar of New York
- State Bar of Washington
- U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York
- U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit
- U.S. Supreme Court