EXPERIENCE

Alexandra Keck is an associate in the Washington, D.C., office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she is a member of the firm's antitrust practice. Her work focuses on a broad array of antitrust issues, including government investigations, antitrust litigation, competition concerns in mergers and acquisitions, and business counseling. Alexandra has represented leading companies in numerous industries, including pharmaceuticals, digital advertising, semiconductors, telecommunications, hospitals, medical devices, and technology and software.

While attending law school, Alexandra interned for the Bureau of Competition at the Federal Trade Commission and externed for the Honorable Randolph Moss of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. She also served as student counsel for the Appellate Courts Immersion Clinic at Georgetown University Law Center, where she worked on public-interest federal appellate litigation, and assisted as a law fellow in the Legal Research and Writing Program.

Alexandra is practicing virtually in Michigan, where she is licensed.
